

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The State of Texas has customarily recognized a 2 variety of official symbols as tangible representations of the 3 state's culture and natural history; and

4 WHEREAS, The heritage of the Lone Star State is closely 5 associated with images of cowboys and the western frontier, and 6 these elements inform several of the current Texas symbols, 7 including rodeo, the official state sport, and the longhorn, the 8 state large mammal; and

9 WHEREAS, A singular fashion associated with the American West
10 is the bolo tie, also known as the bola tie, which is distinguished 11 by its decorative clasp that fastens a length of cord or string; a 12 staple of the western-wear fashions sported by a large number of 13 Texans, the bolo tie conjures up the romance of the pioneer era and 14 speaks to the determination and independence that figure so 15 prominently in Lone Star lore; and

16 WHEREAS, Patented in 1959 by an Arizona silversmith named 17 Victor Cedarstaff, who was said to have gotten the inspiration for 18 the design while on horseback, the bolo tie has been traced to older 19 elements of ranching culture and the people of the western United 20 States; the name derives from the bola or boleadora--a lariat with 21 weights at the end that was used by South American cowboys to 22 ensnare cattle; stylistically, it is similar to the string or 23 plantation ties popular in the era when Texas was being settled, and 24 it also resembles a type of tie worn by Native Americans in the

1 early 1900s, which consisted of a bandanna or string fastened by a
2 silver concho ornament; and

3 WHEREAS, The bolo tie remains popular among many American 4 Indians, and intricate designs fashioned by Native American 5 craftspeople using silver, turquoise, and other materials stand as 6 some of the finest examples of bolo tie artistry; these factors make 7 the neckwear a poignant testament to this region's original
8 inhabitants and also to the many people of American Indian descent
9 who are today Texas residents; and

10 WHEREAS, A fashion accessory that can be personalized to 11 reflect the wearer's taste and interests, the bolo tie is well
12 matched to the individualism that is so much a part of the Texan 13 identity; in selecting or designing a clasp, bolo tie wearers are 14 able to express their personal flair; moreover, the selection of a 15 bolo over a standard tie can suggest that the wearer refuses to be 16 bound by convention and relishes the freedom to exhibit a
17 distinctive sense of style even as they maintain a dignified, 18 formal appearance; and

19 WHEREAS, The bolo tie symbolizes both the state's iconic 20 western culture and the originality of its residents, and it is 21 indeed appropriate that this handsome and unique apparel receive 22 special legislative recognition; now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas
24 hereby designate the bolo tie as the official State Tie of Texas.
