Being a nurse and having autonomy in the care of a vulnerable population may give that individual an opportunity to exploit the patient, employer, or other entities dependent on the professional character of a nurse. Patients would be vulnerable to similar acts involving intent to destroy property or inflict financial harm.
Assault	F	22.01(b)	Deny/Revoke License	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against the Person that involves intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing bodily injury to another person. Stress inherent in the practice of nursing, and possible combativeness of patients in vulnerable states requires the control of impulses that lead to an assaultive offense. A person who has committed assaultive offenses raises serious question regarding ability to provide safe patient care. Patients could be vulnerable to similar acts involving intent to injure or reckless behavior that would risk injury.
Burglary	F	30.02	Deny/Revoke License	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Property that involves entering another's property w/intent to commit theft or harm to another person. Criminally negligent homicide	F	19.05	0-3 yrs old Deny/Revoke; 4-5 yrs issue license w/ sanctions if not on felony probation	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against the Person that involves behavior where the offender engages in conduct that falls below the standard required of ordinary people and a death results. Nurses, by virtue of their license, must hold to a higher standard of conduct where the risk to life and limb is the norm. A person who engages in conduct that falls below ordinary standards when life is at risk raises serious questions about the ability to comply when there is a higher standard of care and where a patient's health is at risk.
Drug Violations	F	HSC 481, 482, 483	0-3 yrs old Deny/Revoke/ Suspend; 4-5 yrs issue license w/ sanctions or TPAPN	Issue License w/ stipulations or issue TPAPN Order (if chemically dependent) if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke.	Crimes involving drugs that include the possession, misappropriation and misuse of controlled substances as regulated by Chs. 481, 482 and 483, Health & Safety Code. Nursing allows you access to medications, Rx pads, and physician or DEA authorizations to obtain them. Nurses handle and administer drugs. Controlled substances are ubiquitous in nursing practice. A person who has engaged in behaviors in violation of controlled substances laws raises concerns about the ability to practice nursing safely. A nurse license provides access and opportunity to repeat this type of criminal conduct. Additionally, violations of controlled substances laws which have resulted in use and abuse of controlled substances may affect a nurse's cognitive ability to perform the duties of the occupation safely.

By definition this conduct is deemed unprofessional or dishonorable conduct as defined in TOC 301.452(b)(10). Professional character is required in nursing and the nurses must exhibit behaviors indicating honesty, accountability, trustworthiness, reliability, and integrity. Patients frequently bring valuables (checkbook, or credit cards) with them to a health care facility. Nurses frequently provide care in private homes and home-like settings without supervision where all of the patient's property and valuables are accessible to the nurse and there would be constant opportunity to commit similar offenses as a nurse. Fraud and intent to deceive raises serious concerns about a person's professional character and whether the nurse can be trusted to respect a patient's property/possessions.
Improper Relationship between Educator and Student	F	21.12	Deny/Revoke License	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against the Person that involves a teacher engaging in sexual contact with a primary or secondary school student. Such a violation of trust given the disparate relationship between a student and teacher raises serious public concern. Nurses are frequently in situations where they provide intimate care to vulnerable patients often having contact with partially clothed or fully undressed patients, including minors. Nurses must maintain appropriate boundaries in the nurse - patient

Sexual misconduct that involves violation of the boundaries between teacher and student raise serious concerns that similar behavior may be repeated in the nurse - patient relationship with even more vulnerable victims. (Note: If required to register on sex offender data base, subject to § 301.4535)
Improper photography	F	21.15	Deny/Revoke License	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against the Person that involves engaging in the secret photography of another person for purposes of sexual gratification. Such a violation of trust and secret activity raises serious concern that such behaviors may be repeated in nursing care. Nurses are frequently in situations where they provide intimate care to vulnerable patients often having contact with partially clothed or fully undressed patients. Nurses must maintain appropriate boundaries in the nurse - patient relationship. Sexual misconduct involving the secret photography of another person for prurient interests raises serious concerns that similar behavior may be repeated by a nurse with even more vulnerable victims.

Medicaid Fraud > $1500	F	35A.02(b)(4)-(7)	0-3 yrs old Deny/Revoke; 4-5 yrs issue license w/ sanctions if not on felony probation	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke (See Note below)	Offense Against Property that involves knowingly making a false material representation with the intent of recovering Medicaid payments of at least $1500.00. The offense may also involve seeking certification of a hospital; a nursing facility, skilled nursing facility; hospice; an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded; assisted living facility; or a home health agency. Professional character is required in nursing, and the nurse must exhibit behaviors indicating honesty, accountability, trustworthiness, reliability, and integrity. Patients frequently bring valuables with them to a health care facility. Nurses frequently provide care in private homes and home-like settings without supervision where all of the patient's property and valuables are accessible to the nurse. Nurses often manage and own certified nursing facilities and home health agencies. The commission of Medicaid fraud raises serious concerns of professional character and whether the same misconduct will be repeated with respect to a patient's property/possessions, future Medicaid charges, or in facility certification processes.

Money Laundering $1500	F	34.02(e)(1)-(4)	0-3 yrs old Deny/Revoke; 4-5 yrs issue license w/ sanctions if not on felony probation	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Property that involves knowingly engaging in a criminal enterprise to conceal, invest or possess at least $1500.00 known to be the proceeds of illegal activity. Professional character is required in nursing and the nurses must exhibit behaviors indicating honesty, accountability, trustworthiness, reliability, and integrity. In nursing, patients frequently bring valuables with them to a health care facility. Nurses frequently provide care in private homes and home-like settings without supervision where all of the patient's property and valuables are accessible to the nurse. A person who has demonstrated behaviour associated with profiteering from criminal enterprises raises questions of professional character and whether similar behaviour will be repeated with respect to a patient's property.
Obscenity, Wholesale promotion	F	43.23(a),(h)	0-3 yrs old Deny/Revoke; 4-5 yrs issue license w/ sanctions if not on felony probation	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Public Order and Decency that involves the intent to wholesale promote any obscene material, obscene device, or activity. Nurses are frequently in situations where they provide intimate care to vulnerable patients often having contact with partially clothed or fully undressed patients. Nurses must maintain appropriate boundaries in the nurse - patient relationship. The need or desire to profit from sexually explicit and obscene material raises concerns that sexual misconduct may be committed through exploitation of patients.

Prostitution X 3 or Aggravated Promotion	F	43.02, 43.04	Deny/Revoke License	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Public Order and Decency involving repeatedly offering to engage in sexual conduct for a fee or promoting others to engage in sex for a fee. Professional character is required in nursing and the nurses must exhibit behaviors indicating honesty, accountability, trustworthiness, reliability, and integrity. Nurses are in the position to have access to privileged information and opportunity to exploit patient vulnerability both financially and sexually. There are appropriate boundaries in the nurse - patient relationship which nurses must clearly understand and be trusted not to cross. Repeated acts of illegal sexual conduct raise serious questions regarding the individual's ability to provide safe, competent care to vulnerable patients and avoid exploitation of patients.
Resisting Arrest, Use of Deadly Weapon	F	38.03(d)	Deny/Revoke License	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Public Administration that involves using a deadly weapon against another person. Stress inherent in the practice of nursing, and possible combativeness of patients in vulnerable states requires the control of impulses that lead to an assaultive offense. A person who has committed assaultive offenses raises serious question regarding ability to provide safe patient care. Patients could be vulnerable to similar acts involving intent to injure or reckless behavior that would risk injury.

Stalking	F	42.072(b)	Deny/Revoke License	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Public Order and Decency that involves a person knowingly engaging in repetitive conduct that is intended to be threatening in nature and imposing a fear of bodily injury or death on another person. The motivations of an individual who would engage in such threatening behavior raises questions regarding his/her ability to provide safe, competent care to vulnerable patients. Such behavior is unprofessional/ dishonorable conduct that is likely to injure the public. TOC 301.452(b)(10).
Tampering w/ Government Record	F	37.10	0-3 yrs old Deny/Revoke; 4-5 yrs issue license w/ sanctions if not on felony probation	Issue License w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Public Administration that requires an intent to defraud or harm another by destroying or falsifying a government record. Professional character is required in nursing and nurses must exhibit behaviors indicating honesty, accountability, trustworthiness, reliability, and integrity. The Board depends on its own government records in the licensing/ authorization process that contain several questions that might affect the ability of an individual to function safely as a nurse. Tampering w/ government records, including falsification of an application for licensure to the Board, raises concerns about the person's propensity to lie, and the likelihood that such conduct will continue in the practice of nursing. Nurses must report patient condition, record objective/subjective information, provide patients with information, and report errors in Medicaid Fraud < $1500	M	35A.02(b)(2)-(3)	0-3 yrs old issue w/sanctions; 4-5 yrs issue license	Issue license (See Note below)	Offense Against Property that involves knowingly making a false material representation with the intent of recovering Medicaid payments of less than $1500.00 which would not be authorized but for the misrepresentations. The offense may also involve seeking certification of a hospital; a nursing facility, skilled nursing facility; hospice; an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded; assisted living facility; or a home health agency. Professional character is required in nursing and the nurses must exhibit behaviors indicating honesty, accountability, trustworthiness, reliability, and integrity. Patients frequently bring valuables with them to a health care facility. Nurses frequently provide care in private homes and home-like settings without supervision where all of the patient's property and valuables are accessible to the nurse. Nurses are often in the position to run and often own certified nursing facilities and home health agencies. The commission of Medicaid fraud raises serious concerns of professional character and whether the same misconduct will be repeated with respect a patient's property/possessions and future Medicaid charges.

Resisting Arrest	M	38.03(a)	0-3 yrs old issue w/sanctions; 4-5 yrs issue license	Issue License	Offense Against Public Administration that involves intentionally obstructing or preventing an arrest by using force against another person. Stress inherent in the practice of nursing, and possible combativeness of patients in vulnerable states requires the control of impulses that lead to an assaultive offense. A person who has committed assaultive offenses raises serious question regarding ability to provide safe patient care. Patients could be vulnerable to similar acts involving intent to injure or reckless behavior that would risk injury.
Criminal Trespass	MA	30.05(d)	Issue license w/ sanctions	Issue License	Offense Against Property that involves entering or remaining on or in the property of another without consent. Nurses frequently provide care in private homes and home-like settings where all of the patient's property and valuables are accessible to the nurse. Nurses frequently provide care in settings without direct supervision. Patients under the care of a nurse are vulnerable by virtue of illness or injury, and the dependent nature of the nurse - patient relationship. Trespass crimes raise serious concerns whether a nurse/nurse applicant can be trusted to respect a patient's property/possessions in the future.

Cruelty to Animals	MA, F	42.09	Issue license w/ sanctions if misdemeanor or not on felony probation; Deny/Revoke if on felony probation	Issue License if misdemeanor or w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Public Order and Decency that involves the intentional or knowing infliction of torture on, neglect of, or unreasonable abandonment of a domesticated or captured animal. Animals are vulnerable by nature of their reliance on people for their care and provision. Patients under the care of a nurse are vulnerable by virtue of illness or injury, and the dependent nature of the nurse - patient relationship. Persons who are especially vulnerable include the elderly, children, the mentally ill, sedated and anesthetized patients, those whose mental or cognitive ability is compromised and patients who are disabled or immobilized. When harm occurs to these individuals, many time they are unable to communicate the harm inflicted. Individuals who commit crimes involving cruelty to animals raise serious concerns whether they are capable of providing autonomous care to vulnerable individuals in their care.
Deadly conduct	MA	22.05(a)	Issue license w/ sanctions	Issue License	Offense Against the Person that involves causing bodily injury to another person. Stress inherent in the practice of nursing, and possible combativeness of patients in vulnerable states requires the control of impulses that lead to an assaultive offense. Professional character is required in nursing and the nurses must exhibit behaviors indicating honesty, accountability, trustworthiness, reliability, and integrity. Patients frequently bring valuables (checkbook, or credit cards) with them to a health care facility. Nurses frequently provide care in private homes and home-like settings without supervision where all of the patient's property and valuables are accessible to the nurse and there would be constant opportunity to commit similar offenses as a nurse. Fraud and intent to deceive raises serious concerns about a person's professional character and whether the nurse can be trusted to respect a patient's property/possessions.
Obscenity, Participates	MA, F	43.23(c),(h)	0-3 yrs old Deny/Revoke; 4-5 yrs issue license w/ sanctions if not on felony probation	Issue License if misdemeanor or w/ stipulations if not on felony probation; if on felony probation, then Deny/Revoke	Offense Against Public Order and Decency that involves the intent to wholesale promote any obscene material or obscene device. Nurses are frequently in situations where they provide intimate care to vulnerable patients often having contact with partially clothed or fully undressed patients. Nurses must maintain appropriate boundaries in the nurse - patient relationship which nurses must clearly understand and be trusted not to cross. Sexual misconduct involving the secret photography of another person for prurient interests raises serious concerns that similar behavior may be repeated

Theft is a crime of moral turpitude. Patients under the care of a nurse are vulnerable by virtue of illness or injury, and the dependent nature of the nurse - patient relationship. Patients frequently bring valuables (medications, money, jewelry, items of sentimental value, checkbook, or credit cards) with them to a health care facility. Nurses frequently provide care in private homes and home-like settings where all of the patient's property and valuables are accessible to the nurse. Nurses frequently provide care in settings without direct supervision. Crimes of theft raise serious concerns whether a nurse/nurse applicant can be trusted to respect a patient's property/possessions in the future. A nurse license would provide unfettered opportunity and access to a patient's person and property.
